About Our Programs

The Council Bluffs Community School District offers a continuum of services to meet the needs of each student with an Individualized Education Program, often called an IEP. All schools have special education support services to meet the needs of students in the general education classroom and in pull out programs.

The goal for each student with an IEP is to enter adult life with the skills necessary for independent living and working in the community to the greatest extent possible.

Specially Designed Instruction Available to Eligible Students

Support in general education

- Support and instruction is provided in the general education setting as specified in the IEP.

Pull out special education services

- Support and instruction is provided in the special education setting as specified in the IEP. Instruction focuses on general education standards with accommodations as needed

Specialized Programs provide students more support and individualized instruction to address their specific needs.
