Areas of consideration include schooling and/or work experience after graduation, awards and honors, professional contributions, community activities, and their positive impact on society and our world.

The selection process is begun in September each year and culminates in the choices being made in December, with the induction ceremony in March at the annual National Honor Society Banquet.

A great deal of time and effort is taken in gathering background and support information of those potential Hall of Fame inductees prior to any decision being made. Family, friends, newspapers and media are consulted prior to the decision being made.
